AGM 2009

Thanks to the unprecedented demand to attend this years AGM, any applications recieved from the time of going to press will be placed on a waiting list because we have reached our limit on the number of people that the venue can hold and cater for.

Entry will be from the list we have got. Anyone who has not sent in the slip from the last newsletter will not be given access. If you still want to attend you will have to give your name to Dave Drakeley for him to put you on the waiting list.

Anyone who has sent in the slip will already will be granted entry. Anyone who finds that they cannot make it for any reason need to contact Dave Drakeley as soon as they know that they will not be attending. This will give anyone on the waiting list a fairer time to be contacted.

Dave Drakeley will be unavailable from 8th March to 19th March inclusive so do not ring between these dates.

More information for those lucky enough to be coming is that the doors open at 12.00 noon with a buffet lunch and a display by the suppliers and manufacturers. This will be followed by the main meeting at 2.30pm and the talk "Sawbones, Quacks and Inventive Surgeons" soon after that. The event should be finished before 4.30pm.
