New President

Some of you may know that Mr Farrands has stood down and Mr Etienne Moore from Brighton has accepted our invitation to be our new President. Mr Moore is also a colorectal surgeon as well as a lecturer at Brighton and Sussex medical School. He has his own website <http://www.sussexsurgery.com/>

Dates for the diary

Please keep these dates reserved in your diaries so that we have a fantastic turnout in the coming year.

The first date is for the AGM

This will be on Saturday March 3rd with doors opening at 1.30pm. There will be a display from the suppliers/manufacturers so you can have a chat about or see new appliances, accessories or even clothes. It's the perfect time to ask about the samples you've always thought about but never got around to organising. The venue is the Community Wise Centre, Ocklynge Road, Eastbourne, BN21 1PY. The map is on the opposite page. Mr Moore has said that barring being called in for some surgery he will be there and will give us a talk and to meet everyone.

Subscription due

Some of you had one of the 55 letters for subscriptions due for this year that were sent out. That's quite a high percentage out of the 246 members we have. Some of those showed a lack of response and therefore we are about 30 members fewer than before.

As has been stated many times before, subscriptions are due on January 1st each and every year regardless of your joining date. January 1st is fast approaching and therefore subscriptions will be due again. Nothing has changed again as to the cost which is £12 for those under 60 and £8 for those 60 and over. Cheques can be sent to Dave Drakeley at the address on page 4 and made payable to "Sussex IA". Standing order forms are also available from the same place and now you can also renew your subscriptions online by going to our website (<http://www.sussexia.org.uk/membership.htm>) and following the links. Don't forget to put "Sussex IA" as the local group or it will disappear into the ether. By the way there is also the facility to donate as part of this way of renewing your subscriptions.

Subscriptions are due,
 as every year,
 on January 1st

Dates for your diary (Continued from page 1)

The second date is Sunday 15th April. This hopefully, weather permitting, will be a bluebell walk and wonderful tea. The time is 2.30pm and the place is a farm near Dial Post. The places are limited as before so EVERYONE who wants to go MUST give there details to Dave Drakeley so that a check can be made on the numbers.
